

1st Day: Arrival

Installation to accommodation. Depending on the time of arrival, relaxation around the pool or a small visit in the city of Messolonghi and dinner in a tavern.

2nd Day: Arakinthos (Retsina- Ancient Pleurona)

After breakfast, an easy and short route which leads to Ancient Pleurona.

The trail starts from Saint Nicolas in Retsina and until the stream is very visibly. Subsequently we walk about 300m inside the stream and then we head right where we have visual contact with the city of Ancient Pleurona. We walk alongside the enclosure of Ancient Pleurona, we can reach the highest point of the wall and see all the Ancient Pleurona from a high view.

3rd Day: Arakinthos (Kato Abelia- Saint Nicolas Kremastos- Kefalovriso)

After breakfast, a magnificent route with great view of Messolonghi-Aitoliko lagoon on the trails of an ancient path. The small church of Saint Nicolas Kremastos lies within a cave and is perched in a hillside of the mountain. In a five minute distance there's a 40m waterfall, with crystal waters.

4th Day: Arakinthos (Ellinika-Greveno- Saint Symeon)

After breakfast, crossing Arakinthos, distance 18km, duration 7 hours. We start from the village Ellinika with direction the city of Messolonghi. In 500m we turn left, we cross vertically the stream and we continue in the forest following the marking until we meet the road. We move towards the road for 500m and we turn right in the plates and we follow the marking route. We cross left on the enclosure of Saint Elias and we meet the route that goes in the top of Greveno. We turn right and we go on in a sharp uphill and we reach the refuge following the marking. After that the route goes in the beautiful forest of oak trees and in the ridge where we can enjoy the magnificent view of Patraikos gulf, the Messolonghi-Aitoliko lagoon, the Ionian Sea islands and Trichonida Lake. The last part of ridge it's stony and needs caution because with rain becomes slippery. We continue on the ridge with small vegetation and we turn right going down the trail which leads to monastery of Saint Symeon. The last part according to historic is a part of the path that the residents of Messolonghi follow after the Exodus.

5th Day: A day with free time and program for relaxation in our facilities (ping pong, basket, Archery, mountain bike) or you can take your bike an head to the city of Messolonghi where you can take your walk and your shopping.

6th day: Arakinthos (Hounista- Saint Paraskevi)

After breakfast we start from the small church of Saint George of Hounista and we follow the trail behind the fountains. We meet above a sheepfold. At this point there's a branch of trails. We follow the right one which leads to Portes traversing on the west side of Arakinthos until we reach the ridge. We turn right and follow the ridge until the crossroad of Saint Paraskevi. We continue left in a downhill until Saint Paraskevi. On the way back we follow the trail on the left side of stream and we reach the place Portes. We follow the ridge towards the right until the crossroad of Hounista and then we go down the trail to the point we begun. During the route we can enjoy the magnificent view of the lagoon and the Ionian Sea and also the beautiful forest of oak trees in Arakinthos.

7th Day: River Trekking in stream of Agrilia

One day River Trekking in the green stream of Agrilia. Fairytale route along the brook and ends at the abandoned settlement Chounista. Characteristic of the route in this beautiful part of the wooded gorge: the lovely waterfalls, natural pool where we can swim and the awesomely rich vegetation. In the night a farewell BBQ party and Greek music.
